CURRENT TOPICS.

There are 6,000 miners in Utah, mostly unorganized.

London bankers are endeavoring to do away with Sunday labor.

Four-fifths mills are now running on full time at Fall River, Mass.

There are 30,000 miners, whom only a small portion is organized.

The National Union of French Laundry Employees has 70,000 members.

London shop assistants have asked parliament to pass an early closing law.

The ship joiners at Mare Island, Cal., navy yard have received an advance of wages.

Sixty co-operative shops were opened in New York by the striking tailors.

Isuzuiku (Mich.) miners have been cut to an average of $1.75 per day; laborers $1.25.

The Adelaide, South Australia, city, corporation has increased its laborers' wages to $1.40 per day, and gangers to $1.12.

Miss Clementia del Valero, a New York society belle and one of the wealthiest of Southern California, has taken the veil in the Dominican order.

The Mississippi river around Vicksburg is full of sharks. Some of them are eight and ten long. They come from the gulf and feed off refuse and small catfish.

It has been reported that the duke and duchess of Marlborough had purchased both horses and the owners of Baron Hirsch, but the London World emphatically denies the rumor.

An English paper was recently guilty of the following beautiful blunder: "Looking back on the tracks of the pathways of the future, he desired the footsteps of an invisible hand."

As a result of the establishment of creameries in Ireland one railway alone has carried to Cork and Dublin for export nearly a thousand tons more butter during the past six months.

It is reported that Dr. Nansen tentatively divorced his wife before starting for the pole, so that she might not be inconvenienced by the difficulty of proving his death if he should not return.

The Japanese have supplied the Chinese as grape pickers in the vine yards of Fresno county, California. They have done it by accomplishing better and quicker work for lower wages.

During the last two years the boiler makers expended less than $5,000 for strike benefits and in ten of the principal strikes secured advances in wages aggregating $50,000 per annum to their members.

A lot of the colliers of the Lethbridge Valley Coal Co. have been ordered to work six days a week until further notice. This is the first time in years that the miners have had a chance to work full time.

Prior, La., of Vienna, declares that sponges, owing to the impossibility of destroying germs in them, have long since been banished from the surgeon's table, and should also be excluded from the bathroom and washstand.

Paul Lawrence Dunbar, the young Negro poet, who recently read his poems at his work at the Lyceum theater, New York, has been for several years the elevator boy in a public building in Dayton, O., and still retains that place.

Mrs. Annie Barker, of Pittsburgh, sued for $30,000 for her husband's affections, alienated by Mrs. Elwood, and the jury awarded her $750. On the same day an Illinois jury sued for $15,000 for a stolen kiss and the jurors gave her $250.

What is looked upon as the most important discovery in a new kind of metal, this is composed of 95 parts of iron and five parts of zinc. It has a beautiful metallic luster, is not subject to change, adheres firmly to the glass and metal and is 200 degrees hard.

The British Medical Journal says that the paper used in many brands of cigarettes made in England contains arsenic. When arsenic is inhaled in small quantities it causes a chronic cough and other symptoms usually associated with consumption.

Mrs. Alexander, the popular novelist, is known in private life as Mrs. Alexander. Her husband, a novelist in disguise, became a novelist in private life, she abandoned her literary work on marrying Mr. Hector, nor did she resume her pen until after his death.

A doctor in the highlands of Scotland, whose patients are scattered over a wide district, takes carrier pigeons with him on his rounds, and sends his prescriptions by the birds. The carrier, he leaves pigeons, too, with distant families, to be let loose when his services were needed.

Justice, as it is dispensed, officiously and officiously, in a public institution the other day at Phoenix, when a man who had thrashed a peeping Tom went to Justice Johnston and wanted to plead guilty, but was told by the justice to go back home and grab the offender again upon any provocation.

The old lost letter in the world is in the British museum. It is a proposal of marriage for the hand of an Egyptian princess. It was made 3,500 years ago. It is in the form of an inscribed brick, and is, therefore, not only the oldest, but the most substantial love letter in existence.

Scranton, Pa., has started a municipal labor bureau, where applicants for employment and persons in need of help may register their wants without charge. All the work connected with it is done by police officers already in the pay of the municipality, and the scheme does not cost anything.

Vesuvius is an interesting sight just now. One stream of lava flowing down from the center is 100 feet wide and from seven to fourteen feet deep, while 100 other smaller streams are running down the cave and a big column of black smoke rises into the sky.

Mrs. Christine Nilsson has a charming home in Madrid, two rooms of which are decorated in a unique style. The walls of her bedroom are papered with leaves of music from the operas in which she has sung and the dining room is papered with the hotel bills she has collected during her journeys around the world.

TRADE REVIEW.

Distinctly Better Conditions Have Appeared in the Textile Industry Since the Last Year.

New York, Oct. 12.—The R. B. Dun & Co. say, Saturday, in their weekly review of the trade:

Distinctly better conditions have appeared in the textile industry since the last year. The surplus usually made in the textile industry is now being used for the purchase of raw materials for manufacture.

A great part of the change is due to the fact that the textile industry is now producing more than it consumes. The surplus usually made in the textile industry is now being used for the purchase of raw materials for manufacture.
